Hunter's DREAM

"My parents said I was their Greatest Teacher! I taught them unconditional love, faith in God, hope, strength, courage, humility, patience and compassion. Don't forget me! I also hope that you will never forget less fortunate children who will always need your support. Always help those who can't help themselves! I will always have a Dream for a Cure, I hope you do too! God Bless You All!"

Hunter's Dream for a Cure is a non-profit organization established in 2000 by Robb & Wendy Nelson in the name of their son, Hunter, who was diagnosed with Sturge-Weber Syndrome (SWS) when he was seven months old. On May 20th, 2005 we unexpectedly lost Hunter to a massive seizure. Needless to say this has been a monumental & devastating loss. In Hunter's memory our foundation has made a renewed commitment to fight this disease and try to make sure that other families do not have to go through the ultimate tragedy of losing a child! SWS is a rare brain disease with no cure or definitive prognosis for those afflicted with it. Hunter's Dream raises money for children with SWS, other neurological diseases and programs for special needs children. Through our fundraising events, the Dave Diaz-Infante Mark Schlereth Charity Golf Classic, the Celebrity Hunt for a Cure and the Denim & Diamonds Gala featuring Craig Morgan and John Michael Montgomery, we have raised more than $1,000,000 since our inception. Our efforts were recognized in 2004 when we received the Frances Owens Communities Helping Young Children Award presented by the former First Lady of Colorado for demonstrating outstanding support for early childhood intervention and programs for special needs children. In 2005 Robb & Wendy received the Pathways Achievement Award from the state of Colorado, honoring extraordinary achievements for people with disabilities.

Hunter's Dream for a Cure has presented The Kennedy Krieger Institute & Johns Hopkins Sturge-Weber Syndrome Center with checks to date totaling well more than $500,000. Our funding helped establish the Center, which was the first of its kind. As a result of our funding and Hunter's passing, the Center was renamed the Hunter Nelson Sturge-Weber Center. The Center takes a multidisciplinary approach to evaluating and treating all medical issues associated with SWS. Long-term research goals of the Center include the development of clinical trials aimed at improved treatment for those affected by SWS and hopefully an eventual cure.

Hunter's Dream For A Cure has presented $75,000 to Colorado's own Developmental Pathways. The Developmental Pathways' funded program assists children with special needs in the public school setting and provides training to teachers. Inspiration Playground has also received $50,000 from Hunter's Dream For A Cure to build the first universally-accessible playground in Colorado. Inspiration Playground is an outdoor play environment that includes safe, state of the art structures that enables every child - able bodied and disabled - to play independently on the same equipment. Other Colorado beneficiaries including Poudre Valley Children's Orthotic & Prosthetic Fund, Windsor Boardwalk Playground Project, Early Childhood Intervention, Breckenridge Outdoor Education Center, Wheelin' Sportsman, Outdoors Without Limits, Tony Semple Foundation, Union Colony Children's Music Academy, 24/7 Kids - Support for Families, Inc., Rehabilitation and Visiting Nurse Association and many more have received donations totalling more than $500,000 from Hunter's Dream for a Cure.

John Michael Montgomery

John Michael Montgomery has turned an uncanny ability to relate to fans into one of country music's most storied careers. Since the days when "Life's A Dance" turned him from an unknown artist into a national star, it is readily apparent in love songs that have helped set the standard for a generation. Songs like "I Swear," "I Love the Way You Love Me" and "I Can Love You Like That". It is apparent in the 2004 hit "Letters From Home," one of the most moving tributes to the connection between soldiers and their families ever recorded, and in "The Little Girl," a tale of redemption that plumbs both the harrowing and the uplifting. John Michael's repertoire--songs like "Be My Baby Tonight" and "Sold (The Grundy County Auction Incident)," where John Michael's vocal earnestness takes musical whimsy to another level.

Aaron Tippin

is a force of nature, a man whose passion for music fuels an array of other vigorous enthusiasms. Tippin is also a pilot, farmer, winemaker, outdoorsman, competitive bodybuilder and devoted family man. Tippin has crusaded for the working man and woman since he ripped country music wide open in 1990 with his uncompromising "You've Got To Stand For Something." On the strength of that remarkable song, comedian Bob Hope invited Tippin to appear with him when he toured the Mideast to entertain the troops of Desert Storm. Tippin has been a favorite of—and a standby for—America's fighting forces ever since. Tippin's voice continued to ring loud and clear with such hits as "I Wouldn't Have It Any Other Way," "There Ain't Nothin' Wrong With The Radio," "My Blue Angel," "Working Man's Ph. D.," "The Call Of The Wild," "I Got It Honest," "That's As Close As I'll Get To Loving You," "For You I Will," "Kiss This" (a cheeky No. 1 song he co-wrote with his wife and partner-in-everything, Thea). Tippin became immediately enraged by the sneak attacks of 9/11 and quickly remembered a song he'd recently penned, (his proudly defiant), "Where The Stars And Stripes And The Eagle Fly." Tippin has journeyed to Iraq and Afghanistan to sing for the troops.

Gary Zimmerman

is an NFL Hall of Fame member! As an NFL offensive tackle he is just one of just a handful of players to earn the honor of being named to two National Football League All-Decade Teams. His superior play earned him a spot on the NFL's 1980s All-Decade Team even though he played just four seasons during the decade.

Following the 1999 season, he was named to the 1990s All-Decade Team as well. Zimmerman's ability to persevere and his desire to play, earned him the respect and admiration of teammates and opponents alike. Even though he missed the final two games of the 1996 season he was still selected to play in the Pro Bowl and was voted first-team All-Pro honors.

Jay Novacek

The former Pro Bowl NFL Tight End who played for the Phoenix Cardinals (1985-1989) and the Dallas Cowboys (1990-1995). He was a five time Pro Bowler, attending the game from 1991 through 1995. He was a key contributor for Dallas in the early 1990's, assisting them to 3 Super Bowl wins. In those games, he recorded a combined total of 17 receptions for 148 yards and 2 touchdowns. He currently owns his own private hunting ranch called Jay Novacek's Upper 84 Ranch in Brady, Nebraska. In his 11 seasons, he recorded 422 receptions for 4,620 yards and 30 touchdowns.

Manny Fernandez

is a former American football player of who played eight seasons for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. He played three Super Bowls for the Dolphins. Manny was a strong contender for MVP of Super Bowl VII with 17 tackles and a recorded sack against the Washington Redskins' quarterback Billy Kilmer. In his three Super Bowls, Fernandez recorded three sacks and 28 tackles. Fernandez was 2nd team All-Pro and an all-AFC selection and a second-team All-AFC choice. Fernandez is also credited with being one of the first nose tackles in the NFL.

Steve Farris

was a Co-Founder, Co-Writer, Co-Producer, and lead guitarist of the multi-platinum rock group Mr. Mister. With two #1 Hit singles Broken Wings and Kyrie, one #1 Album Welcome to the Real World, over 4 million albums sold and the 10th largest selling album in the United States 1986. Steve is a two time Grammy nominee. Steve is an artist when it comes to habitat property management. He bought his first piece 11 years ago, and has since acquired ownership in 5 others, all along the North Platte River in Western, Nebraska. In 2005 he was asked to join, and is since serving a third term on the Ducks Unlimited's "National Conservation Programs Committee" where his second he did so as the "Assistant-Chair of Habitat and Science". Since 2005, has regularly hosted and appeared on many Television Hunting shows for the Versus, ESPN, and the Outdoor Channel networks. Such shows include "Beretta's Bird Hunter's Journal", "Ruger's Outdoor Adventure", "World of Beretta", "Escape to the Wild", "Turkey Revolution", "Waterfowler's Edge", "Browning Expeditions", "Dangerous Game", and "America's Outdoor Journal".

Mark Grabowski

is a former NFL and USFL defensive lineman. He played for Wayne State University-Detroit 1977-81 Defensive Line, the West Virginia Rockets-American Football Association 1981 Champions coached by Lonnie Warwick 1981, the Detroit Lions-1982, the Michigan Panthers and Denver Gold-

USFL 83-84 and the Toronto Argonauts-CFL 1884.

Josh Spies

Spies received his college degree in fine arts from the department of Visual Arts at SDSU. He has chosen to be a painter and has developed a remarkable national career as a wildlife artist. A number of his paintings of wildlife carry emotional moods that strongly inspire admiration for the animals and birds he has studied. His wildlife art finds poetry in Nature, he communicates with his subjects. Josh has discovered the same rapport that Southern Song Dynasty Chinese masters of painting achieved in their masterpiece paintings on animals and birds of Nature. Indeed, his work is more than an American painter, he is an international artist in the transcendent feelings his paintings carry.

Ray Kelly

is a multi-talented artist from Tea, South Dakota. He is best known for his Hunter's Dream Commemorative Print "A Father & Son Dream" which memorializes a hunting trip that Robb Nelson was never able to take with his son Hunter. His television appearances include "The Flying Buckskins," "The Stuntmasters," "World Wide Stunts," "Outdoor Adventures," "Jaycox and Boone Outdoor Productions" as well as many stage and movie credits. His artwork has won awards ranging from the Best of Show at the 1991 Iowa State Fair to the People's Choice award at the South Dakota State Fair in 2001. He has also done artwork for Ducks Unlimited, McKennan Burn Center, Justin Cowboy Crisis Fund, and Casey Tibbs Museum. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, photography, and of course horseback riding.

Chappy & Melissa Kruse

Chad has always been an incredible and evolving artist. He's found his true passion in channeling that artistic bent while drawing on the simplicity of nature: materials often reclaimed from old farms, ranches, chicken coops, tractors or anywhere he sees an unrealized potential. Melissa has an eye for putting things together. She sees beauty and perfection in nature's simplest gifts, which gives her the ability to combine all kinds of unexpected elements for the most unique pieces of art. They look to their country roots and western style for inspiration, then throw in a little modern flair to bring to life a steel image or a piece of art that tells the one-of-a-kind story of its owner and they truly believe that in art — as in life — Imperfection is Perfection.

Dave Barton

has spent more than 25 years in the entertainment business. Barton came to TNN in 1993 and took over the programming duties for the network's award-winning outdoors show. When he came to TNN in 1991, Barton took over the programming duties for the network's award-winning outdoors shows. As Director of Outdoors Programming, TNN's outdoor block included 400 hours of annual programming through some 17 programs. Currently, he works for The Outdoor Channel. Barton is an avid deer and turkey hunter as well as a serious angler. He spends more than 100 days each year in several states enjoying the outdoors.

As Hunter's parents we were prepared for the challenges that a special needs child brings and we were willing to do whatever was needed to give him the best. Despite Hunter's challenges he was fully expected to live as long as any healthy child. He lived his life and filled our lives with unbridled joy and happiness. His infectious smile and laugh affected many. Hunter's death was a shock and a truly devastating loss for us. We never expected to be living life without him! During his far too short life he brought many people together for the greater good of helping children who cannot help themselves. We can not thank you enough for the overwhelming support you have given our family and the foundation over the past five years!

Losing Hunter was an unexpected tragedy and we have had to learn that there is truly no greater loss in life! We can only plead that you help us and Hunter's Dream for a Cure to do everything we can to prevent this from happening to others No one should have to experience what we have gone through. With you help we are making a difference in finding better treatment for this disease and improving the quality of life of special needs children in our community! In Hunter's name please help us!

God Bless You, Robb, Wendy & Brady Nelson

Hunter's Dream for a Cure Lives On at the Hunter Nelson Sturge-Weber Center at Kennedy Krieger Institute

November 5, 1999 - May 29, 2005

Hunter Nelson was five years old when he died on May 29, 2005. His death was sudden, unexpected and presumed to be caused by a seizure that overtook him while he slept in his home in Englewood, Colorado home where he lived with his parents Wendy and Robb and older brother, Brady. Until the time of his death, Hunter was an active 5 year old who experienced all the joys of childhood in spite of the fact that for much of his short life he intermittently experienced uncontrollable seizures and other symptoms associated with Sturge-Weber syndrome: a neurological disorder discernable by a congenital facial birthmark known as a "port wine stain," and characterized by abnormal vessels on the surface of the brain.

It was not until Hunter suffered a seizure at seven-months-old that his condition was diagnosed. Sturge-Weber syndrome is rare and because port wine stains do not always indicate the disorder, it is often not diagnosed until seizures occur. The toll exacted by this degenerative syndrome may include neurological damage, weakening or loss of the use of one side of the body, delays in development, glaucoma, and vision impairments. Hunter experienced many of these symptoms in his short life as well as the unpleasant side effects from medications administered to control them. Yet, through it all he displayed what Dr. Anne Comi, Director of the Hunter Nelson Sturge-Weber Center at Kennedy Krieger, fondly remembers as a "charming innocence and spirited determination." These qualities not only enriched the lives of family and friends; they reinforced the resolve of doctors at Kennedy Krieger to continue their clinical and research efforts in behalf of children with Sturge-Weber syndrome.

The Hunter Nelson Sturge-Weber Center at Kennedy Krieger is the only facility in the United States dedicated to clinical treatment, family education and research concerning Sturge-Weber syndrome. The center was recently renamed in Hunter's memory and in recognition of $500,000 in funding from Hunter's Dream for a Cure. According to Robb Nelson, "Dr. Comi has brought together an exceptional team of specialists at the Kennedy Krieger center. They are doing important research into causes, treatment, and possible cures. In Hunter's memory, our foundation has made a renewed commitment to fighting this disease by supporting their work. It is our hope that through their efforts, other families will be spared the ultimate tragedy of losing a child to Sturge-Weber."
